

SUDBURY HISTORICAL SOCIETY, INC.

Calendar of Events 2013-2014

Most Programs FREE to members! $5.00 - suggested donation from non-members Refreshments will be served after each program
Unless noted, all programs are Sundays at 2 p.m. at the Sudbury Town Hall.

PICTURING SUDBURY: A CELEBRATION OF OUR TOWN	PHOTO CONTEST all year
E-mail a photo to complete the sentence SUDBURY WOULDN'T BE SUDBURY WITHOUT....." details and forms at http://www.sudbury01776.org/ Photo Contest
Saturday, September 21 Five Century House Tour in Wayland - One house from each century. Vans will be used to transport attendees to the houses. All tours begin at the New Wayland Town Center. 10 am -3 pm For information call Wayland Historical Society 508-358-7959. $30 or $25 in advance. This is a 375th Anniversary event put on by Wayland in conjunction with SHS.
Saturday September 28 Colonial Faire & Muster of Companies of Fyfes & Drums - Wayside Inn - Come to enjoy the largest Colonial event in the North East. 10 - 4 p.m. parade 12 noon $2 admission
October 6 Rev Israel Loring of Sudbury(1682-1772) presenter Jane Graham Loring served the town for 66 years and left extensive journals.
Saturday, October 19 Tag Sale 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. in front of Town Hall by the flagpole - Unique and interesting objects donated by Society members and friends.
November 10 The Fabric of Life in Sudbury - 2 nd floor of the Town Hall. Objects from Society collections will be on display to illustrate life in Sudbury through the centuries. A short video of the displays will be available on the first floor.
Tuesday, November 19 Genealogy 101 7:00 p.m. at Goodnow Library With Friends of the Goodnow Library - A 2 hour introductory genealogy seminar taught by experts Elin Neiterman and Rachel Goodrich, that will provide beginners with the foundational skills and tools to begin researching their family tree including tips for getting started, important genealogical resources and keys to organizing information. Ms. Goodrich has a certificate in Genealogical Research from Boston University.
December 15 3 p.m. Sudbury First Parish Christmas from Olde New England Musicians of the Old Post Road - in conjunction with SHS Rousing original arrangements of familiar seasonal tunes, sweet solo songs, and festive instrumental works featuring Schola Cantorum of Boston , Frederick Jodry, Director. $30/person
December 22 Caroling with songbooks (costumes welcomed) from 1-2 p.m. on the steps of the Town Hall. ALL WELCOME! Following, at 2 p.m., the Sudbury Grange will host the annual Family Christmas Party In the Grange Hall. Bring the family for this festive program and meet Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus recording your child's wish list. Also Toys for Tots at Town Hall 1to 3 p.m. with U. S. Marines.
January 12, 2014 Puritans Make a Village - Hal Cutler . This is Sudbury's kick off of the 375th Anniversary Celebration Hal will use his extensive knowledge of the Goodnow family and the Pulitzer Prize winning book Puritan Village .
February 2 The King Philip War in Sudbury - Town Historian, Lee Swanson , and a supporting cast will bring to life what happened in Sudbury in April 1676.
March 2 Railroads in Sudbury - Knowledgeable Railroad Enthusiasts will tell of the two Railroads that served Sudbury.
April 6 First Parish 3 p.m. Rev. Edmund Brown's Library: a Concert Drawn from a Puritan Minister's Musical Interest —This is part of the 375th celebrations of Wayland and Sudbury . Stephen Loikith brings us a concert about the First Minister of Sudbury and the music he might have played. Viol players on period instruments are a part of a Professional Cambridge group called " Long and Away " with soprano Sarah Orlovsky . $20 /person
Saturday, April 19 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. Red Cross Blood Drive at the Town Hall, in memory of where it was done in 1932-1959. Roll up your sleeves and either give or help. The Sudbury Companies of Militia & Minute & Alarm will assist.
May 4 War Memorials of Sudbury - Rachael Goodrich presents an overview of Sudbury's Monuments and Memorials including interesting facts discovered while researching them and an update on the Sudbury Monument Restoration Project.
June 8 The Men who Marched to Concord, April 19, 1775 - George Quintal - Each man had his own history and his own family and George will introduce us to these individual men who marched to fight in Concord and the route they took to get there.	